

Oct 4, 1994

Sorry it took me so long to send this!

I did hear that Gary goes to court Oct 13, 1994.

He's pleading guilty with temporary insanity.

It didn't surprise me a bit. I put a letter, out of many that I have received, just to let you know what kind of jerk he is.

I don't know if any of this will help but I hope it does.

I want you to know, ~~about~~ I know Gary lied about your son!

He'll pay one day & I'll pay big.

Sincerely Yours!
Lisa

Lisa,

I just can't figure you out! Why do you insist on keeping this very dangerous game going? Don't you understand that you're playing around with your life? Do you think that I'm going to just sit back and let you keep Jake from me without doing anything about it? Regardless of what mommy and daddy tell you, if you keep this going there will come a time when ~~but~~ catch up to you and then what are you going to do? If you allow it to get to that point, there won't be anything you can say or do!

Look at what you're putting yourself through Lisa. Can you honestly say to yourself that this is going like you planned? I don't see how because I'm alive & on the streets. I never wanted it to be anything like this but you forced it on me and now you're doing anything & everything to get your way. You forgetting one very important thing, I'm in my back yard now and I'm got the friends to do anything I want to you or anyone who gets in my way. I can get to you in so many ways that I can't count them all!

Why don't you put a stop to all this before someone gets hurt? You're the one running scared and hiding out in shelters for battered women. I'm out & about all the time taking care of business and I'm not hiding from anyone. Just ask Pam & Jimmy and Larry & Shiley, they found me and they weren't even looking!

I know alot about what you're doing because you don't have as many friends in Camden as you thought you did. That's right, we're up that way all the time. We were drinking in the Central House the other night and I was really hoping that your punk mother would show up.

Ask your mom how the coffee is at the Triangle? She was in there last week! I could've gotten to see her but I didn't.

Don't you understand that I'm going to do anything I have to do to see my son and sooner or later I'm going to get what I want, the question is what are you going to force me to do to get it?

You forced me back into this lifestyle and if you don't think I'll use it and everyone in it to get back at you, you're very badly mistaken. I didn't want any of this & you started it with your lies & tricks but it isn't working out like you planned is it?

Sooner or later Lisa, you're lies are going to catch up with you and if you keep me involved, I'll see you in hell!

Look Lisa, if you don't stop all this right now, which is your fault to begin with, I'll do whatever I have to do to stop you dead!! I'm not going to play around with you any longer. You've already caused me to miss Easter with Jake and his birthday. I'll send you straight to hell before it goes any farther and that's a promise.

I'm asking you to tell the truth about what happened and let me see my son and everything will be just fine. I know that mommy & daddy is telling you not to worry and all that stuff but let me ask you a question; are they with you every minute of the day?

I know of every place you could possibly go and when I get tired of looking for you, I'll get you to come out one way or another. When something does happen, it'll be on your conscience no matter how you paint the picture.

You've got everyone up there believing your lies but you & I know what really happened don't we? Oh yeah, I know who your so called witness is now. I don't know the name but I know where they live and when they find out what you & your mom have gotten them into they'll regret it.

and so will you.

Now, if you want to put a stop to all of this its very simple.

- ① Tell the truth about what happened that night to your family & the police.
- ② Put or add in the personal section of the Journal News giving me the time and date that you will take my phone call at your parents house.
- ③ Allow me to see Jake as soon as possible.

If you thinking of involving the police when I call go right ahead because I've got a mobile phone now. all I want is to put a stop to all this! Its your life not mine!!

Thank you

Gay

Liza,

Why are you doing this to me and trying to keep my son from me? Whatever the reason and regardless of who talked you into this, I urge you to reconsider and think about it. I pleaded with you not to even try something like this but evidently you didn't listen. Jake is my son too, and he's all I have in this whole world and I'll be damned if I'm going to just turn my back and let you get away with this. If that's what you think, you're badly mistaken. We hold eyes before and I'll tell you this one last time, I'll see you in hell before you keep me from my son!

You've succeeded in tricking the police & court to taking your side but don't think for a minute that I'm all alone in this fight because I'm not! You've drove me back into this lifestyle and I'll use it to destroy you in anyway I can. That is if you continue with this shit you're trying to pull.

You seem to have forgotten one thing and that's who you're dealing with. All you've done is divide the sides so now you have to play the game and you're in a no win situation. You have to play by rules and we don't. You're not going to stop me from my son and that's just the way it is. You might have me over a barrel right now but not for long.

We both know what really happened that night and ~~it isn't that~~ line of shit you fed the police. I thought you understood when I gave Jake back but once again I was wrong. I didn't keep him to get back at you! I kept him because he's just as much mine as yours, I love him just as much as you do and I can take just as good of care of him as you, but when I saw how bad you was hurting, I knew I had to give him back. When I called you the next day all you wanted to do was threaten me. when I finally gave him back to you everyone told me that you'd hold it against me just like you are but stupid me didn't listen because all I wanted to do was stop your pain and hurt!

If you think I'm just hanging out, I'm not. I've been to London lots of times all different times of the night and day but you're no where to be found. I know all about the beige or white Oldsmobile with the temporary tag in the back window that was parked in your driveway. My friends have even been in the restaurant to eat while I sat in the car outside and nobody even knew I was there.

Just think about it for a minute, you know that I have some friends that don't play games and they won't hesitate for a minute when the time comes. I told them that you know what happened and you're threatening to tell and that's all it took even though you don't know enough to do any damage.

You started this whole thing but you aren't capable of finishing it and we all don't underestimate me my dear! Now, if you want to compromise its very simple, tell the truth about what happened that night, everyone backs off and you let me see my son. In exchange I'll forget revenge for what you're doing to me and I'll get everyone to leave you alone.

all you need to do is call Shelly on Sunday and let her see Jake. I'll get in touch with her and then I get to see him and everything's fine. I won't keep him and you'll have him back the same day. If you refuse my last ditch effort to end this fight that you started then you deal with the situation. You might be able to hide like a chicken but the rest of your family can't and we'll get to them to get to you if you force me too.

a week or so ago I wanted to blow your brains out and lucky for you that I couldn't find you but my only objective is to see my son not kill you. I don't have anything to lose and everything to gain. If you take James father away then he won't have a mother either and that's a promise. I'm not going to let you get away with it.

If anything happens to me because of this, I'll get to you and I won't be able to stop them and I wouldn't even if I could. I haven't been more serious about anything in my life. There'll be no more warnings and Sunday is your last day to let me see my son. If you say anything funny, you're finished for good.

Think about it Lisa, I can get to anyone in your family and you'll never know where or when. I'll be just as much to blame as you are. If you want to come with Shelby that's fine but nobody else. I'm not joking with you either. Sunday is your last day to stop using my son to get to me.

You've caused me to have a nervous breakdown, then you lied to the police and now you're keeping my son from me but at all times on Sunday. I urge you to let me see my son.
