Dear Mr. Ferguson,

Why do you just flat out refuse to do the right thing? I can't believe you haven't figured out by now that you've been used by my now ex-wife. Maybe you're just afraid to admit it because you'll look bad in the eyes of your professional peers.

Don't you think it's kind of strange that she's living with her supposed ex-witness to what happened that night, Horn Keegan? They're even planning on getting married and adopting my son. I can't believe there's anyone this stupid!

I received a copy of your assistant's motion in opposition to my early release, now I'm just waiting on the judge's decision which I'm sure will be another denial. You're going to have a lot of explaining to do when this all hits the fan. You see, I don't have a choice in this matter but I do in the Scott case however you have a choice in this matter but you don't in the Scott case.

Let me fill you in on some very hard facts lady, without me you wouldn't have gotten the indictment and without me you won't get the conviction. Of course you'll never admit that to anyone!

You already have doubts or you wouldn't have told someone that you're afraid to build your case around me because of what I might say. Whether you like it or not, you can't have no both. You're just like me, you don't like being put in a no win situation but accept it lady, that's exactly where you are.

I'm getting so short now that it's almost to the point where it would be just as easy to finish up the time untested of probation and all that. 3 or 4 months ago you had me in a vulnerable state but not anymore. Count them lady, 112 days to go and I'm all done with you & Judge County.

want them all. Remember when I said that I didn't want to be called as a witness? By all means call me because you aren't the only one to grant immunity! The Ohio Attorney General can grant me immunity too. If you refuse to call me, I'll have Steve Hobbs call me.

Remember the bail you had me over? You've got your staff, and half the Sheriff's Department over it!
